

2014-2015 Grant Recipients

The Elementary Schools Art Department: Monet Today, bringing the mysterious gardens of Claude Monet to all of the district's elementary schools

Trish Chialastri (JES): Ball Chairs, helping students who have trouble focusing and paying attention

Amy Gelman (JES): IPAD keyboard cases, enhancing the learning experience for autistic support students

Nicole Gerhart (TFES): Run and Read Club, reinforcing reading skills in an action-based physical education program

Jane Highley (UDHS): Document Show, Share, Display and Discuss, adding interactive document experiences to HS world history and government classes

Brad Lieberman (District-wide): Bringing curriculum to life with student-created video and digital video-editing, enabling faculty District-wide to incorporate digital video recording and editing into the curriculum

Dan Ortiz (UDHS): Soul Food Dinner, creating community connections, building relationships and sharing opportunities

Jennifer Toth (MGES): Action Based Learning Lab, helping with kinesthetic and sensory learning in Kindergarten and Hands-on Documents Grant, facilitating interactive and visual learning in Kindergarten

Jennifer Tulli and the HS Visual Arts Department (UDHS): Gallery Wall, creating a visual arts gallery/museum at the HS

Dorothy Weiss (SRMS): Gift of Animation & Rich Internet Apps, teaching digital media, web design and animation